Senior Principal Prosecutor – Cork Region in the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions

The Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions (ODPP) is seeking a senior lawyer to fill the permanent position of Senior Principal Prosecutor – Cork Region. This is a new role, and the successful candidate will have the unique opportunity to work with the ODPP Regional Office project team to play a key part in establishing and developing our new Regional Office in Cork. The Regional Office is the latest Unit of the ODPP, and it is required to allow our Office to directly deliver prosecution service within Cork. Prior to the launch of the new office, the Senior Principal Prosecutor will work collaboratively with other senior managers and key external stakeholders to ensure the successful establishment of the new office. When the new office is established the Senior Principal Prosecutor will be responsible for leading and managing a team of staff whilst directly delivering prosecution service within Cork. As a member of the ODPP's Management Board the Senior Principal Prosecutor will participate in the implementation of our strategy.

It is intended that the Regional Office will be operational by the latter part of 2026.

NB: Prior to establishing the new Regional Office this role will be bilocation between Dublin and Cork for the first 12-18 months.

The Office

The ODPP was established by the Prosecution of Offences Act, 1974. Our mission is to provide a Prosecution Service that is independent, fair and effective. The Director is independent in the performance of her functions.

The Director enforces the criminal law in the courts on behalf of the People of Ireland; directs and supervises public prosecutions on indictment in the courts; and gives general direction and advice to the Garda Síochána in relation to summary cases and specific direction in such cases where requested.

The ODPP has four divisions:

1. The Solicitors Division is responsible for providing the solicitor service in Dublin and Cork to the Director and oversight of the State Solicitor service nationally.
2. The Directing & Specialist Units Division is responsible for examining the investigation files to decide if there should be a prosecution. There are also two specialised Units within this Division, the Serious and Sexual Offences Unit and the Special Financial Crime Unit, which have both a directing function and prosecute cases in court.
3. The Prosecution Support Services Division is responsible for supporting the criminal prosecution work in the areas of international law, provides reasons to victims and conducts reviews of decisions not to prosecute, prosecution standards, and policy and research.
4. The Corporate Services Division is responsible for providing services and supports for the Office in the area of human resources, organisational development, strategy, ICT, Finance, communications, governance and accommodation.

Each Division of the ODPP is overseen by a member of the Senior Management Team (SMT). The Units and Sections in each Division are managed by members of the Management Board and staffed with people with different skills and backgrounds. A detailed description of the work of each of the divisions of the Office is available at <https://www.dppireland.ie/about-us/our-organisation>.

The Director of Public Prosecution also relies on state solicitors in 31 locations and panels of barristers to represent her in cases that are prosecuted on indictment in the higher courts. All summary matters that are prosecuted by the Gardaí in the District Court are prosecuted in the name of the Director. The State Solicitor service, Counsel and An Garda Síochána are therefore important partners in the provision of the prosecution service.

The ODPP is an inclusive and progressive employer that is responsive to the needs and preferences of its workforce through its employment policies and practices. As an employer, we want to attract and retain good people. This means taking care of our employees. A rewarding and challenging career is one of a number of benefits you will enjoy if you join our Office. We have a range of flexible and family friendly working policies including Worksharing, Shorter Working Year, Remote Working (operated on a 'blended' basis), etc and a range of wellbeing initiatives.

We are a learning organisation with a strong commitment to Continuous Professional Development (CPD). We offer a range of learning, development and knowledge sharing opportunities to enable this including in-house traineeships, third-level education and participation in cross-divisional and external working groups in the Criminal Justice Sector.

To ensure that we can further develop our people and give them rewarding career opportunities, we have a Mobility Scheme. This provides the opportunity to move across Divisions and Units. It allows for a broad range of experience to be developed and helps foster collaboration and collegiality.

Further details can be found at: Working With Us.

A candidate can request a review of a decision or make a complaint at any stage while the selection process is ongoing. A summary of Section 7 and 8 of the Code of Practice is as follows whilst full details are provided in the link above: -

- When submitting a request for an informal review (under Section 7) or making an informal complaint (under section 8) the candidate must address their concerns in relation to the process in writing, clearly outlining the reasons why they believe the selection process was unfair in their case. This must be sent to the Head of Recruitment, The Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions, via email to recruitment@dppireland.ie within 5 working days of notification of the selection decision. The ODPP will examine the informal review/complaint as soon as possible and notify the candidate of the outcome within 5 working days from receipt of the review/complaint. The informal review will usually be completed by a member of the HR-OD Team who was not directly involved in the decision-making process.
- If a candidate remains dissatisfied following the informal review/complaint process, they can proceed through the formal process via formal review (under section 7) or formal complaint (under section 8). A candidate can request a review of a decision or make a complaint at any stage while the selection process is ongoing. A complaint or request for a formal review must be made within 5 working days of the notification of the initial decision or within 5 working days of the outcome of the informal process, if availed of. This must be sent to the Head of Recruitment, The Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions via email to recruitment@dppireland.ie. The ODPP will conduct a more thorough examination of all relevant information whilst consulting with all parties before making a decision. The outcome of the formal review/complaint will be notified to the candidate within 25 days of the Office receiving the request for the formal review/complaint. The formal review will be completed by someone who is independent of the selection process and usually outside of the HR-OD Team. In some cases, for formal complaints the reviewer will be an individual outside of the ODPP.

Should a candidate not be satisfied with the decision of the ODPP concerning the formal complaint an appeal to the CPSA is permitted under Section 8 of the Code of Practice. Where a candidate believes that an aspect of the process breached the CPSA's code of practice, they can have it investigated under Section 8 of the code by the CPSA. An appeal to the CPSA must be made within 10 working days of the candidate receiving the notification of the ODPP's decision about the formal complaint. Further details concerning making an appeal are available in Section 8.3 of the Code of Practice.
